

Bader S. Al-Madi, PhD

+962777941888

bader_madi@hotmail.com

Educational Background:

- PhD,
Sociology- International Development and political Sociology- Brigham Young University, 2008

Dissertation: The Palestinian Women's Role After the First Intifada 1987-1992
- MA,
Political Science-International Relations- Jordan
University, 1995.
Thesis : Jordanian-Egyptian Relationship Between 1952-1970.
- BA,
Political Science and History- Al-Yarmouk University, 1989.

Experience:

- Royal Palace since 1993-
 - Finance Directorate
 - Administration Affairs Directorate
 - Unit for Strategic Studies
 - Office Manager to His Majesty King's Adviser Salah Abu Zaid.
- Filed Coordinator for Brigham Young University and Utah State University's social Development Project in Jordan 2008-2009.

Teaching Experience :

- Salt Lake Community Collage, Utah, USA, Sept 2007-April 2008.
 - Introduction to Sociology
 - Race and Ethnic Groups in the USA.
- Academic Adviser: World Learning: School for International Training-Study Abroad Fall 2008: Research Topics:
 - ✓ TRIBAL JORDAN: HOW BEDOUIN TRADITIONS AND VALUES CREATE LEGITIMACY FOR THE ROYAL FAMILY AND THE JORDANIAN SHEIKS.
 - ✓ Deconstructing the Notion that "Jordan is Palestine:" Perspectives from inside Jordan.

- Jordan University- Political science Department since February 2009.

Membership:

- Student for International Development (SID) Brigham Young University-Utah, USA.

Research Interest:

- International Development/ Political Sociology/ Social Organization, Social Change, and Political Science.

Publications:

- The Nutrition Transition in Jordan: Economic and Food Consumption Context. Promot Educ 2008:15, 6.
- Honor Killing in Jordan between Culture and Religion (in process).
- Jordanian Women and Political Participation (in process).

Conferences:

- The Pacific Sociological Association, Oregon, USA-2004.

Languages:

- Arabic
- English